

NEW YORK ALLIANCE FOR CAREERS IN HEALTHCARE

NYACH's mission is to build an effective healthcare workforce development system in New York City by identifying healthcare employers' needs; helping education and training organizations adapt their approach to better meet those needs; and ensuring low income and unemployed New Yorkers have access to viable career opportunities in healthcare.

Students in pharmacy technician training at Lehman College

NYACH Partners Council

- Greater New York Hospital Association
- Community Healthcare Association of New York State
- Southern New York Association
- Paraprofessional Healthcare Institute
- 1199SEIU Training and Employment Funds
- City University of New York
- New York City Department of Small Business Services

Examples of NYACH's Impact

- ✓ Developed common agenda with major stakeholders in New York City
- ✓ Served as a model for other industries in Mayor de Blasio's Career Pathways plan
- ✓ Supported labor market demand surveys and research
- ✓ Re-designed curricula for medical assistants
- ✓ Built industry expertise of educators and career counselors

"The RN Transition to Practice Program helped me to get into my dream hospital and to be a better nurse. I'm not fazed by many of the obstacles other new grads face on the job because I already know how to handle them." – Efua Otoo, RN TTP graduate

TRAINING OUTCOMES

- ✓ Over 1000 New Yorkers trained
- ✓ Over 680 hired or promoted
- ✓ Promotions average 11% wage gain